ORGANIC TEA
natural healthy fragrant leaf

Why drink ORGANIC TEA?

Tea is good for our health, contains more than 700 nutrition and health compounds. Organic tea and other ingredients are naturally grown without the use of pesticides, synthetic fertilizers, sewage sludge, genetically modified organisms, or ionizing radiation.

Our Organic Certifications:

Production and processing of organic products for the Japanese market is regulated in the Japanese Agriculture Standard (JAS). The certified products are identified with the official JAS organic seal of the Japanese govern-

The USDA Organic seal assures consumers of the quality and integrity of organic products. Organic-certified operations must have an organic system plan & records that verify compliance with that plan.

European Union (EU) organic certification has a strict regulation, farmers and processors must at all times respect the relevant rules contained in the EU regulation.

Our Teas is a high quality organic tea which is made 100% from the best tea leaves of Camellia Sinensis without the use of pesticides. Picked carefully from an organic tea farm located in West Java, Indonesia. Our teas planted according to the mountain levels, located at an altitude of around 1,000 meters (3,000 feet) above sea level.

Golden Oolong Tea is from Luanze (Qing Xin) varietal. The leaf is semi-ball rolled style, can be steeped repeatedly, the leaves will swell and open gradually until the full leaf is exposed. The liquor is Golden green yellow, with fruity and floral aroma.

Pure Green Tea is from Tsui Yu (Jade) varietal, has a unique fragrance, refreshing taste, and organic. Our Green Tea leaf is semi-ball rolled style, like gun powder. The liquor is Light Yellow, with floral aroma.

Classic Red Tea is a blend of Qing Xin and Tsui Yu varietal, with this combination makes our classic red tea has an exquisite flavor and aroma. The liquor is Bright Red. It has a rich fragrance, floral, and fruity aroma with a refreshing sweetness.
