Effortlessly POSSIBLE

Living healthy should be simple and easy. But maintaining a healthy lifestyle has become needlessly complicated.

Everyday we are surrounded by chemicals and dangerous toxins that compromise our health. On top of that we are bombarded with mixed messages and false claims about what is good for our bodies. Herbana wants to address this problem.

We believe that the best changes are made one step at a time. We believe that living your best life should be effortless. We believe that nature offers the kind of simplicity and ease that we all need.

And what we need is right here in our backyard – Indonesia is one of the largest biodiversity in the world.

For over a millennium, Indonesians have turned to herbal remedies to cure and prevent almost any ailment. Throughout much of our history, dating back to the times of ancient Javanese kingdoms, herbs have been at the heart of our traditional medicinal system.

At Herbana, we integrate local wisdom with modern practices. Our goal is to bring you the very best that nature that has to offer.

We deliver the best quality, highly concentrated extracts so that you can enjoy nature's full potential.

Herbana is manufactured by Deltomed Laboratories, a company with over 40 years of experience in producing herbal goods. We process each of our herbs using advanced technology called the Quadra Extraction System and rigorously control each and every step of the process.
